

MARYLAND ALLIANCE FOR JUSTICE REFORM

Working to end unnecessary incarceration and build strong, safe communities

Sunday

The conference committee considering the Justice Reinvestment Act yesterday arrived at a compromise that takes Maryland criminal justice a huge step in the right direction. While not perfect, it is good. It is, in fact, quite good. Below is a link to the Baltimore Sun article.

The Senate and the House will vote tomorrow (Monday, the last day of the 2016 legislative session). Please contact your Senator and your Delegates and urge them to support the Justice Reinvestment Act. We can't quit now!

For easy access to contact information, go to <http://mdelect.net/>, put in your address, and click on the legislators' names. Also, please send a quick email to Governor Hogan at <http://governor.maryland.gov/mail/default.asp> and ask him to sign the bill.

Here is the Sun article. And thank you for helping this happen!

"Maryland lawmakers agree on how to reform criminal justice system" -
Baltimore Sun

MAJR is a nonpartisan association of over thirty community organizations and churches with members in every part of the state, formed to support justice reinvestment. Individual supporters include judges, attorneys, corrections professionals, as well as returning citizens, victims, and service providers.

Help us by forwarding this newsletter to your community!

Visit: <http://www.ma4jr.org>

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

MailChimp.