2021 Legislative Initiatives

Front Door:

Police powers and oversight: MAJR strongly supports Maryland General Assembly leaders' proposals to restore public confidence in police action by retraining police and prioritizing nonviolent services whenever possible.

Other initiatives include:

- Prosecutorial Discretion
- Marijuana Legalization
- Citations for Misdemeanors
- Education Reform

- Felony Murder Rule

Behind the Walls:

Correctional Ombuds Office: The Ombuds concept has been endorsed by Gov. Larry Hogan. Cutting through layers of bureaucratic review now required, Maryland could join several other states with an independent Ombuds to publicly report and recommend improvements as to prisoner's needs, as well as those of prison volunteers and families.

Other initiatives include:

- Model Prisons
- Rewarding Educational Milestones
- Solitary Confinement Initiative.
- Removing the Governor from the parole process
- Maryland Second Look Act

Back Door:

Re-entry Programs: Prisoner reentry is the process by which prisoners, once released, return to the community. Endorsed by DPSCS Secretary Rob Green, a state Reentry Council would bring together representatives of state prisons, local jails, nonprofit providers, and families to more promptly connect returning citizens with resources in their home communities to help them succeed.

Other initiatives include:

- Women's Pre-Release Center
- Expungement

Your vote counts during our General Meeting.

We urge you to vote in the upcoming election on November 3.

Why vote? Simply put, it is our responsibility to vote because our freedom to pursue liberty depends on having a functional, representative democracy. The system only works if we participate in it. Vote, and then go out and keep working toward the world you want to live in.
